BY Betty Crocker

You know, it's always seemed to me that bread baking is the most creative kitchen experience of any. Feeling the yeast dough come to life as you knead it, salty and elastic under your fingertips... sneaking an irresistible peek as the loaf puffs up... up... up... watching the butter seep into that first warm slice... wonderful! And best of all, that divine smell that drifts out of the kitchen and fills the whole house! It gives you a honey-mind contented feeling.

And contrary to what some of you may think, it's easy to bake bread. The first happy rule is: relax! Just let the recipe think for you. Most of the "work" involved is done by the yeast dough, not you. And bread baking is uniquely satisfying. Once you've tried a single loaf of your own, you'll never be quite happy settling for anything else.

For instance, here's one of my favorites—an authentic "holiday bread" from abroad. We've made the recipe simpler and clearer, while still keeping the original delicious flavor and texture. It's a glorious rich bread filled with honey and raisins, to make with Gold Medal flour—and baked... of all things... in an iron skillet!

OLD VIENNA HOLIDAY WHIRL

1/2 cup warm water (not hot—110 to 115°)
2 pkg. active dry yeast
1/2 cup lukewarm milk (scalded then cooled)
1/2 cup sugar
1 tsp. salt
2 eggs
1/2 cup soft shortening
4 1/2 to 5 cups unsifted Gold Medal Flour

FILLING

1/2 cup honey
1/2 cup butter
1/2 cup cream
2 tsp. cinnamon
1 cup finely chopped nuts
1 1/2 cups cut-up raisins

Mix all ingredients and cook 1 min. Cool.

P.S. Start discovering the joy of bread baking right today! Send for my new free booklet, "Yeast Breads Plain and Fancy". Just drop a card to Betty Crocker, Box 88, Minneapolis 60, Minnesota and ask for your copy. They're all delicious breads we've developed and tested for you right here in our Betty Crocker Kitchens—all even simpler and surer to succeed when you use Betty Crocker Gold Medal—the high protein flour that's so uniform, so dependable you get beautiful bakings without sifting. Just use it straight from the sack—cup for cup, unsifted—in any recipe, new or old.

Look for this glamorous recipe—coming soon! A lovely specialty sweet bread, very chic, very French—ones of those you usually see only in a Parisian bakery.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Koch and two sons, Randall and Greg, have moved into the Francis Warner home on the East Branch. Mr. Koch is comptroller with the Bear Archery Company and has been with them since August, coming here from Plymouth. His family joined him here two weeks ago. He fills the position which was formerly held by Earl Schofield, who is now in Grand Rapids.

Mr. Koch graduated from Michigan State University in 1951, with a degree in accounting. He is a C. P. A. and worked with the firm of R. T. Herker at Benton Harbor for four years, then as cost accounting supervisor for Modern Plastics at Benton Harbor for two years. The last four years he has been with the Ford Division of Ford Motor Company in Dearborn, supervising cost accounting and doing cost analysis.

RADKA REPORTS ON CON-CON PROGRESS

The approval of the permanent organization rules was the primary business of the Constitutional Convention during the second week.

Rule 34 consumed most of the convention time and many delegates felt too much time. The part of the rule that excited the discussion was "All Committee meetings shall be open to the public, UNLESS OTHERWISE AUTHORIZED BY THE CONVENTION."

Many seized this sentence as an opportunity to make speeches to the public and press. The speeches were designed to infer that some delegates were proposing secret committee sessions for ulterior motives. Nobody advocated secret committee sessions as a practice.

It was reasonable to conclude that an occasion might arise when the presence of the press or public at a committee meeting where testimony would be personal and damaging to a person or persons. It was also suggested that the presence of the public and press at all committee meetings might prevent compromise of positions between delegates. A rule which might prevent the unnecessary damaging of a person or persons reputation or a rule which might expedite the work of the convention and enable the unanimous endorsement of the articles of the Constitution by the convention has merit. It was the convention's majority opinion that the convention should have the right to determine at a future time whether circumstances warrant committee meetings when the press and public were not present. The time to make all the speeches and print all the headlines about secret committee meetings was not at the time Rule 34 was adopted. The time for speeches and headlines about secret committee meetings should be when a committee, for specific reasons, asks the convention for authorization to bar the public from a committee meeting.

The committee assignments were announced following the October 10th sessions. The committee assignments caused some dissatisfaction and the most interesting developments occurred when delegates Ella Kozce, the Republican National Committee woman, called a Republican caucus. Incidentally, this was the first Republican Caucus since the opening of the convention and the Democrats caucused regularly. A party caucus is not an evil meeting and the Democratic party is not to be condemned for holding regular party meetings. The primary reason for calling the Republican caucus and asking that the press not be present was that several delegates were dissatisfied with their committee assignments and had a few personal things to say. Several got their feelings off their chests and then went back to work of the convention.

My committee appointments were the substantive committee of Local Government, the committee

SCHOOL BAND NEWS

The Grayling High School Band has been very busy these last weeks. Thursday, October 12, at 7:30 p. m., we led the snake dance which annually precedes the homecoming football game. Friday, October 13th, at 3 p. m. the band again led the auto show and the float parade. On Friday evening the float parade around the football field.

Three new members have been admitted to our band, Richard Springs, trombone, Elva Ward, clarinet, Christine Carlson, drums, Richard Stephan and Lynn Elery have nearly completed their senior band tests.

Every home football game, when the band marches, we have a contest to see which ranks look the neatest, and which individuals march the best. At our homecoming game, Walter Neilson was chosen the best color guard, Julie Carlson the best majorette. Best boy marcher was Pat Buron, best girl marcher Linda Knibbs, and best rank, flutes.

The band will not be marching again for a couple of weeks, but we are by no means resting. If you were to drop into the band room between 3:15 and 4 p. m. the next few days, you would see us very busy practicing marches and overtures.

Widening Gap . . .

There has been a long continuing controversy over merits and demerits of Britain's National Health Service—a system of socialized medicine under which everyone is entitled to "free" medical care.

Now a thoroughgoing, scientific study has been made of that service based on the evidence accumulated during its 13 years of existence. The author is John Jewkes, distinguished British economist and an Oxford professor, with his wife serving as collaborator. The substance of their findings is that socialized medicine has resulted in a deterioration of the standards of medical care, and has been a massive barrier to progress.

For instance, Professor Jewkes and his wife state that the system may have "positively hindered the growth of British Medical Services." They say that "the average American now has more medical services than the average Briton," and that "the gap between the two has been widening" since inception of the system. They state the basic question: "How, it may be asked, can medical system which is progressively creating dependency and frustration among the doctors be regarded as fundamentally sound in conception?" And they add that medical research in England has been "stagnant in certain kinds of medical education as been discouraged, and centralized government control of medical services has resulted in increasing administrative delay and confusion."

So it always goes when bureaucrats take over, write rule books and give the order. There is an urgent reason in this for the United States—where current proposals start us down the same sorry road that has led to the decline in Britain's medical standards.

In The Cold War . . .

The crucial question for all humankind

there will be another all-out war, employing weapons of inconceivable destructive power. No one can answer that question. But it is certain that the cold war—which has become primarily an economic war—will continue.

A primary weapon in that war is oil. As Ernestine Adams writes in The Engineer: "There isn't much doubt about the Soviet's concern with oil. In July 1960 a Moscow journal stated: 'It should be borne in mind that oil concessions represent the foundation of the entire edifice of Western political influence in the (less developed) world, of all military bases and aggressive blocs. If this foundation cracks, the entire edifice may begin to totter and then come tumbling down.'"

Miss Adams adds: "Oil energy is the foundation of political confidence." Its power is used politically by the U. S. as well as by the Soviet. We've used it to good effect in every national crisis. We are using it now as an anchor for our allies."

Competition with the Russians isn't easy. To them costs—whether they involve oil or any other cold war commodity or service—are no problem. The goods can be sold at any price an all-powerful dictatorship decrees.

But the American oil industry, like that of other free nations, has one enormous advantage. It is found in the efficiency and vitality of the free enterprise system as opposed to the communist system. To quote Miss Adams once more, "Be glad of one thing—that there aren't 500,000 independents out on the steppes hunting for oil. If the Soviet were a free enterprise, capitalist country, we'd have been drowned in oil already."

Mrs. Frank Barnett and daughter Elizabeth Ann were hostesses to some 20 ladies Tuesday evening at a linen shower for Miss Betty Welsh, who will become the bride of Mr. Douglas R. Stirling of Saginaw, Saturday. The ladies made dusters and pot holders during the evening, until later when interest was centered on the bride-elect as she opened her beautiful shower gifts. The hostesses served a delicious buffet lunch upon a simply decorated table, covered with a white lace cloth and centered with a large single red rose. Miss Kraus and Miss Gail Welsh poured.

The bride was a graduate of Grayling High School and studied music at the School of Music at the University of Michigan for two years. Friends of the bride extended congratulations and best wishes.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Grayling Chamber of Commerce Tuesday evening organization plans were set up and many details outlined and discussed to make this year's organization a successful one. The appointment of the necessary officers is now having the attention of President Harley Russell, and with the collection of the membership dues the Chamber of Commerce is ready to embark on the program plans for the year. Because of the fact that A. J. Joseph has consented to head the membership drive, his resignation as treasurer was accepted, and Alfred Hanson was duly elected to this office. Likewise the resignation of Clarence Gross as secretary was accepted and Farinhat Matson was elected secretary temporarily to fill this vacancy.

An automobile in which several Calumet people were driving arrived in Grayling Friday morning and turning right off US-27, onto Michigan Avenue, drove onto the Michigan Central tracks, not knowing that it was the dead end of the street. The damage to the car amounted to about $100.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ahman returned home Friday from a three-months visit with the former's brother at Staten Island, N. Y. They had not planned to stay so long, but were delayed because of the illness of Mr. Ahman. However he returned very much improved and is looking fine.

It looked as though winter had started in Northern Michigan last Saturday when heavy snow and windstorms struck the Upper Peninsula and northwestern Michigan. Sunday the weather calmed down considerably. Monday was cast, chilly and considerable wind in this region. Gaylord and West Branch had light snow and a howling wind. Grayling escaped it. Tuesday it was clear and bright again with above normal temperature. October on the whole has been a delightful month.

Achievement Day for the Summer Clubs in 4-H Activity in Crawford County was held at the Maple Forest Town Hall on Friday, October 14th. Exhibits included livestock, potato, garden, canning and food preparation. All except the livestock were shown at the hall. The calves were shown at a near-by barn. Judges were Mr. Bowman of Gaylord and Miss Redmond, also of Gaylord, both graduates of Michigan State College and experienced as critics in agricultural products. Miss Redmond stated that the quality and appearance of the canned products exceeded any she has previously seen this year. Potatoes grown and shown by Edmund Howe, Harvey Dennis and Carl Richter were nicely displayed. The Garden Club exhibit consisting of garden produce and some flowers grown by seven boys and girls was perhaps the outstanding feature of the exhibit. The program following a splendid potluck dinner was well selected and rendered. Instrumental numbers by Keith Babbitt and Carl Richter showed care in preparation and real feeling in rendering. Special recognition is gratefully acknowledged for the splendid leadership of Mrs. Charles Owen who led the Garden Club; to Mrs. Richards Babbitt, leader of the Canning and Food Preparation Clubs, and to Maurice Babbitt, leader of the Potato and Calf clubs.

62 CORVAIR MONZA

NEW FACE, SAME SPORTING HEART

We might as well tell you straight off: Corvair's the car for the driving enthusiast. Think that lets you out? Maybe not.

Until you've driven one, you really can't say for sure, because Corvair's kind of driving is like no other in the land. The air-cooled rear engine sees to that. You swing around curves as you please. You whip through the sticky spots other cars should keep out of in the first place. (Especially this year, now that you can get Positraction as an extra-cost option.) You stop smoothly, levelly with Corvair's beautifully balanced, bigger brakes.

Corvair's found other new ways to please you this year. A forced-air heater and defroster are standard equipment on all coupes, sedans and both Monza and 700 Station Wagons. So are dual sunshades and front-door armrests and some other goodies. You'll note some new styling, inside and out. Nice. And safety-belt installation is easier, too, and cheaper.

So you can see we haven't really done much to Corvair this year. Why on earth should we? If this car, just as she is, can't make a driving enthusiast out of you, better take a cab.

And here's America's only thoroughbred sports car, the '62 CORVETTE. We warn you: If you drive a Corvette after your first sampling of a Corvair, you may well end up a two-car man. And who could blame you?

SCHOOL BAND NEWS

The G. H. S. Band has been very busy lately, practicing up on many new songs that would be suitable for half time shows at football games. We are also practicing on overtures for concerts.

Forbes, Pat McEvers, Vicki McEvers, Beverly Johnson and Carolyn Klein are working on the half time program for the football game which will be held on November 3. The theme will be centered around Thanksgiving, since that holiday season will be in high glory at that time.

The constitution of the band has been set up and revised by the following students: Donna Penton, Marilyn Stamply, Cathy Forbes, John Sorenson, Gwen Davis, Carolyn Klein and Kitti Funkh. This constitution will help our band to have better standards, more unity and more cooperation.

Band reporters: Katsy McEvers, Vicki McEvers, Cathy Forbes.

Annual Audit of City of Grayling

September 18th, 1961
TO THE HONORABLE MAYOR AND CITY COUNCIL
City of Grayling, Michigan

I have examined the balance sheets as of June 30, 1961, of the GENERAL FUND (INCLUDING FIXED ASSETS AND RELATED BONDED INDEBTEDNESS), CEMETERY, PERPETUAL CARE AND MAUSOLEUM FUND, ELECTRIC LIGHT AND POWER PLANT AND DISTRIBUTION SYSTEM FUND, WATER WORKS FUND, SEWAGE TREATMENT FUND, TRUST AND AGENCY FUND with respect to the CITY OF GRAYLING, MICHIGAN, and their related statements of revenues and expenditures for the fiscal year then ended. My examination was made according to generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as I considered necessary in the circumstances, except that I did not confirm the receivable items by direct correspondence with the debtors.

In my opinion, except for the fact that I did not confirm the receivable items by direct correspondence with the debtors, the accompanying balance sheets and related statements of revenue and expenditures present fairly the position of the several named funds of the CITY OF GRAYLING, MICHIGAN, at June 30, 1961, and the financial transactions of these funds for the fiscal year then ended in conformity with generally accepted principles of municipal accounting applied on a basis consistent in all material respects with that of the preceding year.
